

A handy A6 card for delegates to record their key learning points; essentially what they will stop, start and continue to do as a result of the workshop. The reverse of the card features one of eight personal development quote.